

Heathlands Park Limited

Make the most of your retirement in a Suffolk residential park home

Retirement can be an opportunity to get more out of life. So why not make the most of it? A residential park home at Heathlands Park in Ipswich offers you comfortable, easy living in beautiful surroundings, as well as a safe, secure environment. What's more, you can realise capital from your present home and take full advantage of your new-found leisure time.

The ideal retirement home

Choosing a retirement home is a big decision. The quality of the park homes at Heathlands Park make that decision easy. High-specification but low-maintenance, they are so much more than mobile homes. Designed with meticulous attention to detail, each fully furnished, bungalow-style residence is spacious, modern and well equipped and has its own garden.

The perfect location

Living in a Heathlands Park home offers you the best of both worlds: a semi-rural setting, yet with a wide range of amenities and public transport close at hand. In a secluded location and tastefully landscaped, this exclusive development has the feel of a charming village; however, you won't feel isolated. There are supermarkets and other facilities nearby, while Ipswich town centre is easily accessible with a bus stop directly outside the park entrance.

Give yourself the freedom to enjoy life. For more information on our high-quality residential park homes or to arrange a visit, call 01473 713989.
